We recommend the stage be 20' deep by 24' wide with a height of 2-4 feet for the majority of our group acts. Note that we also prefer drum riser as well (if a drummer is being used in the particular event). Please notify us of stage specifications.

INTERNATIONAL EVENTS (OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES)

If this event is taking place outside of the United States, we have several key points that the buyers must be aware of to ensure a smooth and successful performance. These are reinforcements, or in addition, to any points already outlined above: 1) We must have travel, both ground and air, covered by all in the traveling party. We prefer business class air travel, unless other arrangements have been made. We must also have suitable ground transportation, with English speaking driver/interpreter. This means large vans capable of transporting all in the traveling party of large amounts of luggage, wardrobe, and musical gear 2) We must stay in suitable hotels! They must be clean (with refrigerators) and they must have wi-fi internet access. This allows for us to conduct business and communication properly. Hotels must also be in a safe and protected area. 3) Per diem in local currency is normally required. This may be between US $25 or $45, so refer to the above contract for details 4) Payments to us must be in US Dollars -- prior to each performance - no exceptions! 4) All work/travel visa's must be coordinated and paid for in advance by the buyer 5) Where required, we will complete the proper taxing authorities' paperwork -- but we must have your guidance and assistance in doing so properly. 6) Our luggage costs MUST be reimbursed for both ways of travel. We also will need airport parking fees, tolls, and other travel expenses in doing your show(s) paid for. We will submit receipts and expect them to promptly be paid upon arrival in US Dollars.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS, must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

U.S. person. Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
 2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding,
- or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

For federal tax purposes you are considered a person if you are:

- An individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States, or

- Any estate (other than a foreign estate) or trust. See Regulations sections 301.7701-6(a) and 7(a) for additional information.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien.

Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the recipient has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
