

Ahlman Tops Husker Frosh

Harold Ahlman leads Nebraska's freshmen in rushing while Wilfred Minor is the total offense leader going into Friday's game against the Missouri frosh at Memorial Stadium.

Ahlman has rushed for 74 yards and Minor has compiled 105 total yards, 65 rushing and 40 passing.

Missouri's freshmen, who handed NU coach John McElwain his only loss since coming to Nebraska, came into the game with a 2-0 mark. Missouri defeated Melton's freshmen last year at Missouri.

Odell Seeking Grid Opponent

Odell — Odell is seeking an eight-man football opponent for Wednesday, Thursday or Friday night of this week.

The scheduled Wednesday night game with Filley was cancelled when Filley was forced to drop its last two games with Odell and Beatrice St. Joseph because of lack of personnel.

Any eight-man team wishing to play Odell should contact coach Jerry Rupprecht.

Hare Has Second Knee Operation

Former Nebraska basketball team member Fred Hare underwent a second operation on his knee Monday.

Hare is staying out of school this semester to work as a Lincoln policeman and to get his knee back in shape for further competition.

Husker cage coach Joe Cipriano said Hare should be able to return to school the second semester and be eligible for competition the following season.

Junior Stuart Lantz, also a cage regular last season, has been sidelined during current drills with an injured finger.

City Rec Department Will Sponsor Fencing

The City Recreation Department is sponsoring Fencing lessons beginning Wednesday, Nov. 9, at the Lincoln High School girls gym, 7-9 p.m., under the supervision of Gerald Novak.

All adults, 17 and over, who are interested in fencing lessons should register now at the City Recreation Department, 210 So. 15th. For further information contact Gordon Kuklish, phone 475-2659.

Irish Widen Advantage Over MSU

By DICK DUNKEL

Notre Dame continued last Saturday to widen its lead in the college football rating race, according to the Dunkel Index.

The Irish (5-0) beat Oklahoma, 38-0, to increase their rating to the season's high of 117.2. So far they've met opposition indexed at 88.2 and have out-scored it by 29.0 points per game for the 117.2 total.

In second place, with 17.5 over 93.8 for 111.3, is Michigan State (6-0), after a 41-20 win over Purdue.

Other leaders, their records, and Saturday's scores:

Alabama (5-0), 42-6 over Vanderbilt; UCLA (6-0), 29-15 over California; S. California (6-0), 30-0 over Clemson; Georgia Tech (6-0), 35-17 over Tulane; Tennessee (3-2), 29-17 over S. Carolina; Florida (6-0), 28-7 over LSU; Purdue (4-2), lost to Mich. State; Arkansas (5-1), 41-0 over Wichita State.

All 650 college teams set their own indices, as illustrated above, without the use of anyone's opinion. Leaders have ranked themselves as follows:
